First Step in "Stage Construction"

Let Surfacing Contract Highway 24 to Bow River

A contract covering double asphaltic surface treatment of Highway 24 from the junction with Highway 23 north to the Bow River has been let to Standard Gravel and Surfacing of Canada in the amount of $109,071.

This is the first step in the "stage construction" program planned for this highway, with the primary aim of making this a dust-free road. It is anticipated that the asphaltic surfacing from the Bow River to the highway's junction with No. 1 highway will be completed next year to give residents of this area their first hard-top link with Calgary.

It is understood that heavy trailer truck traffic will not be allowed to use Highway 24, as the light asphalt would soon break down under heavy loads. Further asphalt courses can be applied in future to bring the road up to standard—thus the term "stage construction."

Three other tenders for this contract were received:

Asphalt Surfacing Ltd., Red Deer, $153,155; McCallum Holdings Ltd., Lethbridge, $165,386, and General Surfacing Ltd., Edmonton, $176,980.

Recreation and Craft Courses At Red Deer

The Arts and Crafts Division, Cultural Activities Branch, Department of Economic Affairs, Edmonton, is anxious to have recreation leaders and craft leaders to take over cultural work in their own communities.

To promote the training of craft leaders, two-week courses are given early in July in Red Deer, in such subjects as copper work, leather, ceramics, flower making, quick crafts, etc. Leaders must be seventeen years of age or older. They stay in dormitories on the grounds. A program from 7 a.m.

Shower Honors Miss Agnes Bogner

A miscellaneous shower honoring Miss Agnes Bogner was held recently at the home of Mrs. Walter Sutherland, with Mrs. Frank Burchak as assisting hostess.

Some 12 friends of the bride-elect were gathered and enjoyed a social evening of games.

Mrs. Burchak, on behalf of those assembled presented Agnes with a gaily decorated basket, filled with lovely and useful gifts. Mrs. Tom Bogner of Lethbridge, sister-in-law of the guest of honor assisted her in opening the colorfully wrapped parcels. Agnes very graciously thanked her friends for their kind wishes and much-appreciated gifts.

The evening concluded with the serving of a fainty lunch by the hostesses.

til 10:30 p.m. is followed daily. Both basic and more advanced courses are given in subjects taught.

The recreation leadership courses include social activities, rhythmic activities for women, physical conditioning for men, recreation work shops, square dance classes, swimming instructions, first-aid instructions, etc.

Assembly sessions and community singing are conducted daily for the furthering of leadership in one's own community.

Certificates for craft and for leadership are granted when courses are satisfactorily completed. This summer there were about 165 trainees from Coutts, Alta., to Ft. Smith and Ft. Resolution, N.W.T., and from British Columbia to Winnipeg. Nationality, creed and race make no difference.

The two-week craft course costs a trainee only $15 for room, meals and instruction. The four-week leadership course costs the trainee only $20.

Brown McDonald Dies; Well Known As Sheep Exhibitor

The Vulcan-Champion district lost a highly respected old-timer in the death of Brown Hugh Alexander McDonald on July 23, 1959, in the Vulcan Hospital. He was in his 70th year and had been seriously ill since early in January. His birthplace was Taymolt, Argyle, Scotland, and he came to this part of Alberta in 1910 as a young man.

Besides his wife, he is survived by one son, Harley at home; a daughter, Marion in Toronto; two grandchildren; two brothers in Scotland, and one brother in Australia.

Brown McDonald was well known throughout Canada as a breeder and exhibitor of purebred sheep, both Hamshires and Saf-folks. In 1951, at the Royal Winter Fair in Toronto he won the coveted E. J. Freyseng Trophy for the best pen of four lambs in the show, bred and exhibited by the owner. He was one of the judges in the sheep classes at last year's Royal Winter Fair.

One of the original members of the Alberta Wheat Pool, he was also a member of the Canadian Stockbreeders Association. In his home district he will be remembered as a successful farmer and stockbreeder, an exceptionally good neighbor and a fine man.

Interment was in the Vulcan cemetery at 7 p.m., following a graveside service conducted by Rev. M. Wuerfel of Vulcan and Rev. Peter Dawson of Carmangay.

THE QUEEN AT EDMONTON—Queen Elizabeth, Lieutenant-Governor J. J. Bowen and Premier Ernest Manning are shown as they descended the steps from the Legislative building to the gardens where they attended a luncheon. This picture of the Queen with the two senior representatives of the province was taken by Ken Patridge of the Camrose Canadian, representing the Alberta Weekly Newspapers' Association.

Some Wind Damage

Heavy Rain This Week Improves Crop Prospects

A very timely rain Monday night and Tuesday morning of this week brought greatly needed moisture to farmlands of this area. In town, the Searle Grain Co., rain gauge showed 1.6 inches of rain Tuesday morning and a few miles north of Vulcan up to 2 1/2 inches of rain fell during the storm.

The rain will help fill the heavy crops throughout the county area, some of which were beginning to suffer from lack of moisture, with early sown crops showing signs of burning.

Little hail accompanied the storm in this part of the province. There are some reports of slight damage east of Vulcan but it was definitely of a minor nature. Elsewhere in the province farmers were not so lucky, as radio reports indicate that over one million acres in central Alberta received severe hail damage during the storm.

What damage occurred in this area was caused by the extremely high winds that accompanied the rain. Barley and rye crops were flattened to the ground and may present some swathing problems, but, again, any damage is more than offset by the increased yield made possible by the rain. From the towns and country alike come reports of large limbs being torn off trees, shingles stripped off houses, fences and some small buildings blown to the ground and heavy damage to flowers and shrubs.

Power and telephone poles were down in several places; in other spots falling tree limbs broke lines. The town was without electrical power part of Tuesday morning but normal service was restored in most areas by noon.

Winds moderated Tuesday afternoon and skies were clearing. A return to normal July weather by Thursday was the forecast.

Both Cause and Effect

Because paper is a vehicle of culture, its use in itself generates its own further use. Similarly, the printed word on paper sacks and paperboard containers stimulates a demand for more paper and paperboard.

Armada Store and P.O. Closed

The Armada General Store and Post Office, serving that district since the early days when the land in that area was first being settled, has been closed.

Established by one of the early homesteaders, Bert Saunders, before the railroad went through, the store was for many years a community centre and meeting place for a large number of farm families. Mr. Saunders later sold out to W. E. Howell, who with his family operated the store for many years until a son, Harvey Howell, took over from his father. Three years ago the store was bought by W. Marks, who has extensive farming interests in the Armada district.

The Hamlet of Armada is about six miles northwest of Lomond.

Auction Mart

Active bidding with good quality entries combined to make an excellent sale at High River Auction Mart on Saturday, July 25, when 249 head of cattle, 368 hogs and four horses were sold.

Steers sold from $22 to $24.30, heifers from $20 to $22.10, cows from $13.10 to $16.20 and calves from $20.50 to $27.25 per hundred-weight.

Baby calves brought $20 to $42 each and saddle ponies averaged $127.50.

Sucking pigs sold from $3 to $5.25, good weaners from $6 to $8, feeder hogs from $10 to $26.75 and sows from $30 to $47.50 a piece. Twelve sheep sold at $11.50 per head.

Maldaner-Thompson Rites at Milo

MALDANER — THOMPSON The Milo Evangelical Lutheran Church was the scene of a pretty wedding recently when Marilyn Clara, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chester Thompson of Milo became the bride of Vernon Eugene Maldaner, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Maldaner of Duchess in a double-ring ceremony performed by Pastor N. D. Foster.

Vases of white mums and red peonies decorated the altar before which the father gave his daughter in marriage.

The bride chose a white gown styled by Miss Olive of Portrait Gowns. The bodice was a dream of lace overlaid with nylon for an illusion of pure loveliness. A high circular band created the Empire effect with design motif carried through to the sleeve. The full front panel was magnificently displayed through the side-and-back treatment. The two bouffant back panels were trimmed with imported French lace.

The bride wore a finger-tip veil and carried a white Bible decorated with sweetheart roses and Stephanotis. Her only jewellery was a string of cultured pearls and earrings, a gift of the groom.

Miss Donna Mae Porter, cousin of the groom was maid of honor. Miss Ruby Page and Mrs. Carol Tiegen were bridesmaids. They wore identical princess line dresses in a lovely French blue with a petal hem line and bow. Their dresses were complimented by matching picture hats, white shoes and gloves. Bouquets carried by the trio were made up of white daisies.

The flower girl was Gwen Monner of Milo. She wore a dress of sweetheart pink overlaid with net and carried a basket of white and mauve mums and yellow roses.

Jim Thomson of Milo was ring bearer.

The best man was Hubert Lake of Duchess. Gene Henry of Majorville and John Berezowski of Calgary were the attendants.

Guests were ushered by Arvid Thompson and James Maldaner.

During the signing of the registrar, Miss Dianne Monner sang, "The Wedding Prayer," accompanied on the organ by Mrs. Leonard Northcott.

Mrs. Chester Thompson, mother of the bride, was attired in a gown of Peacock blue with white accessories. The groom's mother chose a printed blue dress with blue accessories. Both wore corsages of pink roses.

A reception for 150 guests was held in the IOOF Hall following the ceremony. Mel Schaub proposed the toast to the bride.

For travelling the bride changed to a suit of Island Coral with white accessories and a white orchid corsage. Mr. and Mrs. Maldaner have now taken up residence in Vulcan.

Elks Improve Standing In Baseball League

Vulcan Elks, who started this year's baseball grind with a rough ride in the league, basement, have come back with a loud roar as the schedule comes to a close.

Three recent wins have boosted them to 18 points in standing and there is even cautious talk of playoffs involving Elks this year.

On Wednesday, July 22, Charlie Sjogren pitched Vulcan to a 14-5 win here over Carmangay. They drove in four runs in the opening inning and were ahead of hurler Ricky Stedman and his team mates all the way.

Local fans got more than their money's worth at the diamond last Sunday when Nanton were trampled 10-1 by the Elks in the first game, and were again the victims in the 14 inning 8-7 marathon session in the evening.

An eight run flurry in the fourth inning of the afternoon game left little hope for Nanton, who conceded the game after seven innings but such was not the case in the final encounter.

Nanton pitcher Herb Goodwin, who started earlier this year with the Calgary Dodgers, had things well under control during most of regulation play and in the eighth was leading 7-3. His world erupted when Ken Gatenby hit a bases loaded triple to close the gap and another run in the ninth forced extra innings. Until the bottom of the fourteenth both teams succeeded in starting runners around the bases but they never finished the trip.

In that inning Don Larkins, who with "Swede" Robertson had been called in to replace two other feuding teammates, got to first on an error, Warnick flied out and Sjogren hit to right field. The throw went to third base to catch the runner but the baseman lost the ball in the sunlight and Larkins went on to score and break the deadlock.

Elks have one game left in the schedule against Lomond and normally playoffs begin this Sunday, but it is not known whether the top four positions have been decided.

Unofficial standings before last weekend give Enchant 22 points, Champion 19, Nanton 16, Carmangay and Lomond 15 and Vulcan 14.

On the mound for Vulcan was Sjogren who went for four innings and Warnick who pitched the remaining 10. Warnick also threw for seven frames of the afternoon game.

50th Wedding Anniversary

Some 200 friends, neighbors and relatives of Mr. and Mrs. Peter McIntyre called at their home during the afternoon and evening of Sunday, July 19, to help the pioneer couple celebrate their golden wedding anniversary.

Receiving with the bride and groom of half a century was their daughter, Mrs. Del Thomas, their daughter-in-law, Mrs. Ross McIntyre and their granddaughters, Mrs. Ted Reynolds, Mrs. Terry White and Mrs. J. Fleming.

A profusion of bouquets of colorful blooms decorated the reception room, while the table was covered with a beautifully hand made lace cloth, the work of Mrs. McIntyre. A suitably decorated wedding cake shared the table with a lovely centre-piece designed by Mrs. Gerald Laidler of Red Deer. Tables and chairs were also arranged on the tree-shaded lawn.

Peter McIntyre, son of Mr. and Mrs. Duncan McIntyre, pioneers of the Reid Hill district and May, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Hearn, also district homesteaders, were married at High River, July 21, 1909, by the Rev. J. P. Berry. Both bride and groom were born in Ontario.

The newlyweds moved to their farm east of Vulcan, where they continued to reside until their retirement in 1946, when they moved into town.

Three children were born to Mr. and Mrs. McIntyre — Edna, who died at the age of 15; Ross, who farms his grandfather's homestead, and Mrs. Del, (Reta) Thomas, who with her husband operate the Peter McIntyre farm. There are also four grandchildren and six great grandchildren.

The guests of honor were presented with a corsage and a boutonniere sent by their grandson, Allan Thomas of Whitehorse. They were the recipients of many lovely gifts and long-distance phone calls and telegrams of congratulations.

Both Mr. and Mrs. McIntyre, in their 70's, enjoy good health and greeted friends from Vancouver, California, Calgary, Montgomery, Queenstown, Mossleigh, Okotoks, Innisfail, Caroline, Lethbridge, North Battleford, Sask., and Estevan, as well as those from Vulcan and district.

A note of disappointment was felt by Mr. and Mrs. McIntyre in the absence of the former's sister, Mrs. Florence Shearer of Los Angeles, Calif., who had journeyed to Alberta for the event, only to be stricken ill in Calgary. She was hospitalized and unable to attend.

Tea and lunch was served as guests arrived and were greeted by the McIntyres.

It's No Joke

One civilian to do the paper-work for every two Canadians in uniform seemed too much of a good thing to Defence Minister Pearkes when he was a member of the Opposition. Waste and extravagance in the department was then his frequent charge.

All this was recalled in the House by a question as to why, now that Mr. Pearkes has been in charge of the show for two years, civilian strength at national defence headquarters continues to grow year by year. With a frankness that seems to have disarmed his questioner Mr. Pearkes replied, "I will be quite honest; I still wonder."

The explanation may be found in Parkinson's Law — which sounds like a joke but isn't. This is the theory, postulated by the British professor C. Northcote Parkinson, that in public administration work tends to expand to fill the time available for its completion. That is, if there are ten men in a department and work for only five, the work will still keep the ten men busy. Another part of this theory notes that government departments multiply their staffs faster than the work they produce, which is the basic explanation of the growth of bureaucracy.

If Parkinson's Law is a joke, it's a pretty expensive one—costing a good part of $200 million a month for Canadians. That is the payroll for our government employees — all 618,000 of them. The federal government is the biggest employer, nearly 300,000; the ten provinces combined employ 230,000; the municipalities, close to 100,000.

For cabinet ministers, deputy ministers or anyone else to step in and drastically cut departmental staffs is probably too much to expect. Things just aren't done that way in the civil service, whether or not they should be. But a highly efficient and frequently suggested method to achieve the same result is a directive from the top that vacancies will not be filled until employment has been reduced to a given figure.

It is a proposal that recalls the anecdote of a general store's customer who, noting the absence of the lazy clerk Eddy, inquired as to his whereabouts. "Eddy's been fired," was the proprietor's explanation. "Has someone been taken on to fill the vacancy?" was the next question. "Nope," was the reply, "Eddy didn't leave no vacancy."

What could taste better on hot buttered toast than peach jam?
Here's my very successful recipe.

PEACH JAM

4 cups prepared fruit
(about 2 quarts ripe peaches)
½ cup lemon juice (2 lemons)
7½ cups (¾ lbs.) sugar
1 bottle Certo fruit pectin

How to prepare fruit. Peel and pit about 2 quarts fully-ripe peaches. Grind or chop very fine. Measure 4 cups into a very large saucepan. Add ½ cup lemon juice.

How to make the jam. Add sugar to fruit in saucepan and mix well. Place over high heat, bring to full rolling boil. Boil hard 1 minute, stirring constantly. Remove from heat; stir in Certo at once. Skim off foam with metal spoon. Stir and skim for 5 minutes to cool slightly, to prevent floating fruit. Ladle into glasses. Cover at once with ¼ inch hot paraffin. Makes about 11 medium glasses.

Pectin: What is it? Here's the answer! Pectin is the jelling substance found in all fruits in varying amounts. Certo is pectin extracted from fruits rich in this natural substance, then refined, concentrated and performance-controlled. Using Certo and following the tested Certo recipes, means your jam and jelly will always set right.

Preserving Pointer: Certain fruits, such as peaches, pears, apricots and apples darken easily while you're preparing them for preserving. To help keep their color, place the fruit in a bath of ½ tablespoon salt and ¼ tablespoon of vinegar to 4 cups of water. Then rinse them in clear water before you pack them in jars. That way they'll look every bit as good as they taste!

More recipes—more hints. Watch for them! If you've had a problem with your jam or jelly making, drop me a line. I'd be glad to help. Bye for now.

POWER

FROM ALBERTA'S "UNKNOWN COUNTRY"!

New multi-million dollar Brazeau River Project . . . another forward step in Calgary Power's long-range planning to maintain LOW-COST POWER

CALGARY POWER LTD. has a multi-million dollar belief in Alberta's progress! While serving the province today, the company plans and builds ahead to maintain efficient, low-cost service tomorrow.

Latest news of Calgary Power's long-range expansion program comes from one of the most isolated regions of Alberta — the lower reaches of the Brazeau River. In this virtually unknown area of dense forest and muskeg, work is under way on a new power project that will benefit, in particular, residential consumers.

When completed in 1964 this important hydro project will complement the 144,000-KW base-load thermal plant at Wabamun. The new powerhouse and dam (towering two hundred and thirty feet above the bedrock of the river) are designed for economical peak-load power. From the "big bend" of the Brazeau will flow low-cost, dependable power for the "busy periods" when it's needed most!

Watch for further reports on the Brazeau Development — one more example of constant forward-planning at Calgary Power Ltd.

The sympathy of the district is extended to the family and relatives of Mrs. Hellevang who passed quietly away at her home in Ladner, B.C., on Friday. Mrs. Hellevang lived close by before moving to Ladner to make her home and was a loved and respected neighbor. Her passing is a sorrow to those who knew her.

A heavy electrical storm on Monday evening brought from 3/4" to over an inch of rain to the district. This was much needed moisture and should help grain to fill. Most of the wheat and barley has headed.

MOSSLEIGH

This is 4-H Club Week in Olds and Elsie Leslie, Donna Elliott, John Campbell and Lloyd Groenewald are representing the Clothing, Garden, Grain and Beef Clubs.

Friends of Bob Beacom were sorry to hear that he has been sick and spent a few days in the hospital. His friends hope to see him home and well again soon.

The weather has been very hot and dry for the last week with only scattered showers throughout the district. The crops look good but could stand moisture. Haying is in full swing with many farmers finished.

The little Henry boy, son of S. Henry, met with a freak accident one day last week and had to spend a few days in the hospital.

Shower Held

A very large crowd of women and children attended a shower in the Mossleigh Hall on Wednesday evening in honor of Miss Joan Leslie. The hall was decorated with pink and white streamers and white bells, and due to the high winds Monday, there were no flowers.

After a program of two contests and two musical selections by Janet Leslie and Janie Randle, Mrs. W. Campbell made the presentation. Janie Randle and Sandra Christie drew in the decorated wagon. Joan was assisted by her sister, Mrs. Leonard Kidd and a cousin, Mrs. F. MacDonald in opening the many lovely gifts.

After all the gifts were opened and admired, Joan graciously thanked all the ladies. A dainty lunch was served in the lunch room with Allan's and Joan's mothers sitting with the girls at the bridal table.

What will it profit, when life here is o'er,
Though great worldly wisdom I gain,
If, seeking knowledge, I utterly fail
The wisdom of God to obtain?
What will it profit, when life here is o'er,
Though gathering riches and fame,
If, gaining the world, I lose my own soul,
And in Heav'n unknown is my name.
What will it profit, when life here is o'er
Though earth's farthest corners I see,
If, going my way, and doing my will
I miss what His love planned for me?

It's smart business to spend a few hours investigating pick-ups and then buy the best

Stop and think about it — doesn't the efficiency of your combine depend on the ability of your pick-up to feed it? Won't a bunching or erratic pick-up neutralize your trucks, your help, your combine — every bit of money and muscle you invest in the harvest? Then the finest pick-up you can buy will also be the most economical.

The Northwest Special has proved its superiority, season after season, in the toughest conditions.

On a par with the big new combines in massiveness, stamina, and life, it is guaranteed to reduce down time to the irreducible minimum. It absolutely will not pick up stones, big or little. In fact, experience shows that not only does it keep the big stones out of your combine, but it can eliminate gravel dockage entirely. And at the same time, actual figures show that it picks up as much as 15% more bushels to the acre, while maintenance costs are proving by far the lowest of any.

This is the really up-to-date PICK-UP, for those who know and want the best!
